

GIVE the Monk a penny, for the Organ Grinder man is here. All the kiddies in the block are waiting for him to come along so they can see the funny little monkey's dance. Hear the lively tune he is playing; and see how he is laughing, too, at Jicko and Jocko as they jump and twist a hundred different ways for you. Who's doggie is that? afraid of them. HE cannot dance so funny. It takes only a minute with the shears to cut out the pictures, and you can paste them together in a jiffy. With a little string thru the holes in the monkey, where it is indicated on the drawing, you can make them dance for you just the way you see them in the picture.
